PRESS STATEMENT FROM THE PREMIER AND MINISTER OF HOUSING,

MR. DUNSTAN

HOUSING TRUST DEVELOPMENT IN PT. LINCOLN. 25/8/71

New housing accommodation for 21 families will be built in Pt. Lincoln by the Housing Trust, the Premier and Minister for Housing, Mr. Dunstan, announced today. He said contracts worth nearly $170,000 had been let for work in Port Lincoln in the month ending 20th August, 1971.

"The new work involves the construction of one brick single unit house and 20 timberfront double units.

It is a continuation of the Trust's development on Coronation Place and the new work will be bounded by Follett Street and Stamford Road," Mr. Dunstan said.

He said the Housing Trust was expanding its building programme to provide more low cost housing in country areas. Contracts have been let to R.M. Cunningham and A. Smith of Pt. Lincoln, and to A. Bateman and F.A. & B.F. Pulford.
